three	Taxability to Transferor
	CNL Strategic Capital, LLC has made a Section 754 tax election. Due to this election, we need instruction as to how this transfer impacts the tax basis of the shares being transferred. Specifically, we need to know if the Transferor's tax basis carries over to the Transferee. If you have questions, please consult your qualified tax professional as to the particulars of your transaction. While not an exhaustive list, the following examples are for general informational purposes only. For example, the tax basis of the shares being transferred typically carries over to the Transferee for transfers that are (a) solely due to a change in the custodian, (b) a qualified account rolled out to a non-Roth qualified account, or (c) a transfer by gift. However, the tax basis of the shares being transferred typically does not carry over to the Transferee for transfers that are (a) distributions from a qualified account to its beneficial owner, (b) rollovers from a traditional IRA or other retirement account to a Roth IRA, or (c) due to the death of the Transferor. CNL Strategic Capital, LLC will be relying on the following indication below (see prospectus for more details).
